THE very great Number of Musical Societies, Catch-Clubs, &c. which are now established, both in Town and Country, plainly demonstrate that Part-Songs and Catches, never were so much in Vogue in England, as at present; the Practice of which (if rightly used) may be esteemed as very commendable, not only in its being an innocent Amusement, and a pleasant Evening Recreation, after the burthensome Fatigues of the Day, for Persons to join in Singing of melodious Songs and Catches, that Peace and Tranquility may thereby be introduced into a Neighbourhood, and social Harmony abound, where perhaps before did dwell the greatest Animosities. For

*MUSIC hath a powerful Charm,
That can the fiercest Rage disarm:
Calm Passions in a human Breast;
And lull ev'n Jealousy to rest.
So great 'is Music's Power.*

As very few Collections of this kind have hitherto appeared in the World, will, I hope, sufficiently apologize for the Publication of the following useful Work; especially since no Collection, already extant, contains half its Quantity and Variety in so small a Compass, and at so easy a Rate; which makes it not only come at a small Expence to the Purchaser, but also makes it less burthensome for the Pocket; which it is hoped, will occasion its meeting with a general, as well as a candid Reception.

P R E F A C E.

But how much soever I have consulted the Reader's Convenience in its Conciseness, and consequently moderate Expence, he may, at the same Time depend upon finding here, as good a Collection of Songs and Catches, for two, three, four, and five Voices as have perhaps ever seen the Light; several of which have been entirely new set to Music, and were never before printed.

Indeed I have omitted the Thorough Basses, but this cannot be thought an unpardonable Omission, if it be considered that they are used but in few Country Places, and that, besides, there was no Room left for them in the narrow Limits of the present Undertaking. But however, the vocal Basses, may be played with a Bassoon, or Bass-Viol, and the Trebles, may likewise be played with Violins, German Flutes, &c. together with the Voices, which will greatly augment the Music.

Finally, I recommend the following Sheets to all Lovers of Harmony, heartily wishing that they may become generally useful, which was the End I proposed.

TWO, THREE, and FOUR VOICES.

S O N G A. 2 Voc. Mr. H. Purcell.

God save great George our King, long live our noble King;

God save the King; send him vic—to—ri—ous, hap—py and glo—ri—ous, long to reign o—ver us, God save the King.

- 2 O Lord, our God arise, scatter his Enemies, and make them fall;
Confound their Politics, frustrate their knavish Tricks,
On Him our Hopes we fix, O! save us all.
- 3 Thy choicest Gifts in store, on him be pleas'd to pour, long may he reign;
May he defend our Laws, and ever give us cause,
To say with Heart and Voice, God save the King.

S O N G A. 2 Voc.

Mr. William Laws.

Gather your Rose-buds while you may, old Time is still a fly-ing;

And that same flow'r that smiles to-day, To-mor-row will be dy-ing.

II.

The glorious Lamp of Heav'n, the Sun,
The higher he is getting;
The sooner will his Race be run,
And nearer he's to setting.

III.

That Age is best, that is the first,
While Youth and Blood are warmer;
Expect not the last, and the worst;
Time still succeeds the former.

IV.

Then be not coy, but use your Time,
While you may go to marry:
For having once but lost your Prime,
You may for ever tarry.

SONG on a Bowl of Punch. A. 2 Voc.

Mr. Markham.

The jol—ly bowl does gl—ad my soul, the flow—ing

Li-quer cheers my Heart; I'll re—vel free from all con-

—troul, 'tis this that doth im—prove all Art,

II.

The Miser may be pleas'd with Gold;
 The sporting Beau with pretty Lads;
 But I'm best pleas'd when I behold
 The Nectar sparkling in the Glass.

SONG A. 2 Voc.

Mr. Weldon.

Let am-bi-tion fire thy mind; thou wer't born, &c.

The first system of musical notation for the song. It consists of two staves, treble and bass, in 3/4 time. The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a simple accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the staves.

scorn thy crook, and leave the plain.

scorn thy crook.

The third system of musical notation. It concludes the song with a final cadence. The lyrics are written below the staves.

II.

Crowns I'll lay beneath thy Feet, thou on Necks of Kings shall tread;
Joys encircling, Joys shall meet, which way e'er thy Fancy leads.

III.

Let not Toils of Empire fright, Toils of Empire Pleasures are;
Thou shalt only know Delight, all the Joy and not the Care.

IV.

Shepherd, if thou yield'st the Prize, for the Blessings I bestow,
Joyful I'll attend the Skies, happy shall thou reign below.

S O N G A. 2 Voc.

Mr. H. Carey.

He comes, he comes, the he-ro comes, found, found your trumpets, beat, beat, your drums

From port to port let cannons roar, he's welcome to the British shore ;

Welcome, welcome, welcome, welcome, welcome to the Bri-tish shore.

II.

Prepare, prepare your Songs, prepare;
 Loud, loudly rend the echoing Air:
 From Pole to Pole your Joys resound,
 For Virtue is with Glory crown'd.
 Virtue, Virtue, Virtue, Virtue,
 Virtue is with Glory crown'd,

SONG     A. 2 Voc.     Mr. Felton.

Fill, fill, fill the glaſs, briſk-ly put it roun—d,

joy—ful News at laſt, let the trum—pet ſound;

join in lof—ty ſtrains, love—ly nymphs, jol—ly fwains;

Peace and plen—ty ſhall a—gain with wealth be crown'd.

- 2 Come, come, come ſweet Peace, thou moſt welcome Guest;
Let all Diſcord ceaſe, Harmony abound,—Join in, &c.
- 3 Come, come, come, let nothing but Joys ſurround,
Sweet Muſic playing, perfect Concords ſound,—Join in, &c.
- 4 Drink, drink, drink a Health unto George our King,
Let every true loyal Briton ſing,—Join in, &c.

A Favourite SONG A. 2 Voc.

Moderato.

Smile, smile, Britannia smile, thy genius comes again to guard the fruitful isle, & thunder o'er the main, thy gallant sons disdain the ease, now crown thee mistress of the seas;

now crown thee mistress of the seas.

- 2 While dauntless they advance, and bid the Cannons roar,
They'll scourge the Pride of France, and shake the Imperial Shore;
Deriding Trumpets o'er the Waves, with Courage never known to Slaves.
- 3 The Deck all stain'd with Blood, the Bullets wing'd with Fate;
The wide and restless Flood, cannot the Rage abate;
In How and in Boscawen, wake the Souls of Russell and of Blake.
- 5 Britons pursue the Blow, like Sons of Freedom fight;
Convince the haughty Foe, that you'll maintain your Right;
Defiance bid to France and Spain, assert your Empire o'er the Main.

SONG A. 2 Voc.

Britons where is your great Mag-na--ni-mi-ty, where's your boast-ed cou-age flown? Quite per-vert-ed to pu-si--la-

--ni-mi-ty, scarce to call your souls your own.

- 2 What your Ancestors won so victoriously;
Crown'd with Conquest in the Field;
You'd relinquish, and O! most ingloriously;
To Oppression, tamely yield.
- 3 Freedom now for her Flight makes preparative;
See her weeping, quit the Shore;
Britain's Loss will then be past comparative,
Never to be hold her more.
- 4 Gracious Gods assist to exergitate;
Stretch forth thy vindictive Hand;
Make Oppressors their Plunder regurgitate,
And preserve a sinking Land.

A LOYAL SONG. A. 2 Voc.

Fame let thy trum—pet sound, tell all the world a-round, great George is King :

Tell Rome, and France, and Spain, Bri-tan-nia scorns their Chain,

Bri-tan-nia scorns their chain ; great George is King, great George is King.

2 May Heav'n his Life defend,
And make his Race extend,
Wide as his Fame :
The choicest Blessings shed,
On his anointed Head,
And teach his Foes to dread,
Great George's Name.

3 He Peace and Plenty brings,
While Rome deluded Kings
Waste and destroy :
Then let his People sing,
Long live our gracious King,
From whom all Blessings spring,
Freedom and Joy.

4 God save our noble King,
Long live our gracious King,
God save the King ;
Mark how the Vallies ring,
Long live our gracious King,
From whom all Blessings spring,
God save the King.

SONG on Masonry, A. 2 Voc.

Mr. H. Carey.

'Tis Masonry u-nites Mankind, to gen'-rous ac-tions forms the Soul;

In friendly converse all conjoin'd, one spirit animates the whole.

II.

Where'er aspiring Domes arise, wherever sacred Altars stand;
Those Altars blaze unto the Skies, those Domes proclaim the Mason's Hand.

III.

As Passions rough the Soul disguise, 'till Science cultivates the Mind;
So the rude Stone unshapen lies, 'till by the Mason's Art refin'd.

IV.

Tho' still our chief Concern and Care, be to deserve a Brother's Name;
Yet ever mindful of the Fair, their kindest Influence we claim.

V.

Let Wretches at our Manhood rail, but they who once our Order prove,
Will own that we who build so well, with equal Energy can love.

VI.

Sing Brethren then the Craft divine, best Band of social Joy and Mirth;
With choral Sound, and chearful Wine, proclaim its Virtues o'er the Earth.

S O N G A. 2 Voc.

Mr. Winn.

Hap-py is a coun-try life, blest with Con-tent, good Health & Ease,

Free from fac-tious Noise or Strife, we on-ly plot our-selves to please.

Peace of mind the Days de-light, and love our wel-come dream at Night.

Hail green Fields, and shady Woods,
 Hail Springs and Streams that still run pure,
 Nature's uncorrupted Goods,
 Where Virtue only is secure :
 Free from Vice, here free from Care,
 Age is no Pain, and Youth no Snare.

S O N G . A. 2 Voc.

Britannia's fons rejoice, to George ex-alt your voice, God save the King;

In whose au--spi cious reign, Cape Bre--ton we regain, and in re-- —cording strain, Vic—to---ry sing; In whose au-spi-cious reign, Cape Breton

we regain, and in re-cord-ing strain, Vic—to -ry sing.

2 Amherst and Boscawen,
And all their British Men,
Like Heroes shone;
Thanks be to Patriot Pitt,
Whose penetrating Wit,
And Wisdom judg'd it fit,
To set them on.

5 O grant thus nobly won,
That never Cape Breton
Again may fall;
May British Bands protect,
While British Hearts direct,
And Gallie Schemes detect,
God save us all.

A New Favourite HUNTING SONG. A. 2 Voc.

Mr. Arnold.

The echoing horn, sounds well in the morn, & calls the brave sportsman a——way, the cry of the hounds, with pleasure resounds, and greatly en-li-vens the day, the day, and great-ly en-li-vens the day.

2.
 Away to the Shaws,
 And hark! the brave Noise
 O'the Hounds when they open their Throats!
 The Fox he breaks over,
 Hark! Forward! hey! Over!
 And follow their musical Notes, &c.
3.
 Hedges, Gates, or Stiles,
 Cause us no recoils,
 Our Horses they leap them so well;
 The Hounds we will follow,
 And bravely we'll halloo!
 What Pleasure can hunting excel, &c.
4.
 The Hounds when at Fault,
 We hold-hard or halt,
 'Till the Scent of the Fox they regain;
 Then cry! Hark! Forward!
 Hey! Over! Hark! Forward!
 And gallop it over the Plain, &c.
5.
 O'er Mountains he flies.
 And afterwards dies,
 Having led us an excellent Chace;
 We take off his Brush;
 And then homewards push,
 In order our Spirits to raise, &c.
6.
 With a Bottle and Friend,
 The Ev'ning we'll spend,
 To crown the sweet Sports of the Day;
 Our Wives shall, at Night,
 Give us such Delight,
 Will smooth all dull Sorrow away, &c.

A New Hunting SONG. A. 2 Voc.

The morning is charming, all na-ture is gay, a--way my brave boys to your horfes away; for the prime of our pleasure in questing the hare, we have not fo much as a moment to spare. Hark the lively ton'd horn, how melodious it sounds, how me--lo-dious it sounds, to the mu-fi-cal song, to the mu-fi-cal song of the mer-ry mouth'd hounds.

II.

In yon Stubble Field you shall find her below,
Soho, cries the Huntsman; hark! to him, Soho!
See, see where she goes, and the Hounds have a View,
Such Harmony Handel himself never knew.
Gates, Hedges, and ditches to us are no Bounds,
For the World is our own, while we follow the Hounds.

III.

Hold! hold! 'tis a Double, hark! hey! Bowler hey!
If a Thousand gain say it, a Thousand shall lie,
His Beauty surpassing his Truth hath been try'd,
At the Head of a Pack an infallible Guide;
At His Cry the wide Welkin with Thunder resounds:
The Darling of Hunters, the Glory of Hounds.

IV.

O'er Higlands, and Lowlands, and Woodlands we fly,
Our Horses full Speed, and our Hounds in full Cry,
So match'd in their Mouths, so equal they run;
Like the Turn of the Spheres, and the Race with the Sun;
Health, Joy, and Felicity dance in the Rounds,
And bless the gay Circle of Hunters and Hounds.

V.

The old Hounds push forward, a very sure Sign,
That the Hare, tho' a stout one, begins to decline;
A Chace of two Hours, or more, she has led,
She's down, look about ye, they have her, 'ware, dead!
How glorious a Death to be honour'd with Sounds,
Of Horns, and a Shout to the Chorus of Hounds.

VI.

Here's a Health to all Hunters, and long be their Lives;
May they never be cross'd by their Sweethearts or Wives;
May they rule their own Passions, and ever at rest,
As the most happy Men, be they also the best;
And free from all Care which the many surrounds,
Be happy at last;---when they see no more Hounds.

A Loyal SONG.      A. 2 Voc.

Gently.

Say love-ly peace that grac'd our isle, why you withdraw the in-dul-gent smile, why you with-draw the in-dul-gent smile?

Is it you fly the fons of Fame, that they the pride of France may tame, that they the pride of France may tame.

How great the Pleasure, how refin'd,
And even in Reflection sweet;
When Lovers are but of one Mind;
And Souls together seem to meet.

The Fly. A. 2 Voë.

Dr. Green:

Bu-ry, curious, thir-fly fly, drink with me, and drink as I;

Free-ly wel-come to my cup, could'st thou sip, and sip it up.

Make the most of life you may, life is short, and wears away, life is short, and wears a-way.

Both alike are mine and thine, hasten quick to their decline ;
Thine's a Summer, mine's no more, though augmented to threescore :
Threescore Summers when they're gone, will appear as short as one,

Will appear, &c,

Time seems little to look back, and moves on like Clock or Jack ;
As the Movement of the Fly, Fortune swiftly passes by ;
And when Life's short Thread is spun, the Larum strikes, & we have done,
The Larum, &c.

The Advice, A. 2 Vcc.

George Frederick Handel, E♭q;

Mortals wife-ly learn to meafure life by the ex-tent of joy;

Life is fhorr-t, and fleeting pleasure then be gay, whilst you may, and your hours in mirth em-ploy.

Never let a Miftrefs pain-you, tho' ſhe meets you with a Frown ;
Fly to Wiue, 'twill ſoon unchain you, cheer thy Heart, and all ſmart,
In a ſweet Oblivion drown.

If Love's fiercer Flames ſhou'd ſeize thee, to ſome gentle Maid repair ;
She'll with ſoft Endearments eaſe thee, on her Breaſt, lull'd to reſt, Eas'd of Love, and freed from Care.

Friendſhip, Love, and Wine united, from all Ills defend the Mind,
By them guarded and delighted, happy State, ſmile at Fate,
And leave Sorrow to the Wind.

SONG A. 2 Voc.

Mr. Arnold.

When invok'd by flat-t'ring tongue e--ver rea—dy thou to hear.

Thou dost make the Coward brave;
 Thou dost frozen Dotage warm;
 Thou dost Freedom give the Slave,
 And thy Sons protect from Harm.

Thou dost in the Fair One's Breast;
 Soft Desires, kind Wishes raise;
 When the amorous Swain is blest,
 Thine the Conquest, thine the Praise.

To our Vows propitious prove,
 We by thy Assistance may,
 Triumph o'er the God of Love;
 Triumph o'er the God of Day.

SONG A. 2 Voc.

Mr. Arnold.

When Chloe was by Damon seen, what heart cou'd be unmov'd?

She look'd so like the Cyprian Queen, he gaz'd, admir'd and lov'd.

He lov'd, alas! but lov'd in vain,
 And, full of Grief and Care,
 He knew he never cou'd obtain,
 The lovely, charming Fair.

Cloe deserv'd a better Swain ;
 He not so fair a Bride ;
 Yet still he hugg'd the fatal Chain,
 He lov'd, despair'd, and died.

Take Pity then thou lovely Maid,
 For Cloe's Case is thine,
 I dare not ask, so much I dread ;
 Must Damon's Fate be mine ?

DAMON and CELIA, A. 2 Voc.

Mr. Cannington.

As Celia near a fountain lay, her eye-lids clos'd with sleep, sleep, the shepherd Damon chanc'd that way to drive his flock of sheep, to dri ve to drive his flock of sheep.

 He wish'd the Nymph would wake,
 Tho' ne'er before was any Swain
 So unprepar'd to speak, &c.

4.

Whilst slumb'ring thus fair Celia lay,
 Soft Wishes fill'd her Mind;
 She cry'd, come, Thyrsis, come away,
 For now I will be kind, &c.

5.

Damon embrac'd the lucky Hit,
 And flew into her Arms;
 He took her in the yielding Fit,
 And rifled all her Charms, &c.

BEAUTY

BEAUTY and MUSIC.

SONG, A. 2 Voc. Mr. Rameau. Bass by Mr. Arnold.

Gracefully.

Ye swains whom radiant beauty moves, or mu-sic's art with found di-vine. Think how the rapt'-rous charm im-proves, where two such gifts ce-left-ial join, Think how the rapt'-rous charm improves, where two such gifts ce-left-ial join.

II.

Where Cupid's bow and Phœbus' lyre,
In the same pow'rful hand are found ;
Where lovely eyes inflame desire,
While trembling notes are taught to wound.

III.

Enquire not who's the matchless fair,
That can this double death bestow :
If young Harmonia's strains you hear ;
Or, view her eyes too well you'll know.

Love in Perfection. Sonnet, A. 2 Voc. Bafs by Mr. Arnold.

I'll range a—rou—nd the sha—dy bow'rs, and ga—ther all the sweet—est flow'rs: I'll strip the garden and the grove, to make a gar—land for my love.

II.

When in the fultry heat of day, my thirsty nymph does panting lay;
I'll hasten to the river's brink, and drain the floods but she shall drink.

III.

At night to rest her weary head, I'll make my love a grassy bed:
And with green boughs I'll form a shade, that nothing may her rest invade.

IV.

And whilst dissolv'd in sleep she lies, myself shall never close these eyes:
But gazing still with fond delight, I'll watch my charmer all the night.

V.

And then as soon as chearful day, dispels the darksome clouds away:
Forth to the forest I'll repair, to seek provision for my fair.

VI.

Thus will I spend the day and night, still mixing labor with delight:
Regarding nothing I endure, so I can ease for her procure.

VII.

But if the nymph whom thus I love, should ever false or faithless prove;
I'll seek some dismal distant shore, and never think on woman more.

A favorite HUNTING SONG. A 2 Voc.

BASS Mr. Arnold.

Vivace.

Hark a-way, 'tis the merry ton'd horn, calls the hunters all up in the morn, to the hills and the woodlands we steer, to un-har-bour the out-ly-ing deer.

And all the day long, this, this is our song, still hol-lowing and fol-lowing so fro-lic and free ; Our joys know no bounds while we're

Continued.

II.

Round the woods when we beat how we glow, while the hills they all echo hollo !

With a bounce from his cover when he flies, then our shouts they resound to the skies.

And all the day long, &c.

III.

When we sweep o'er the vallies, or climb up the health-breathing mountain sublime,

What a joy from our labours we feel, which alone they who taste can reveal.

And all the day long, &c.

The Absent Lover. SONG A. 2 Voc. Mr. Barnard.

BASS Mr. Arnold.

Ye gentle gales that fan the air, & wan-ton in the shady grove;

O! whif-per to my absent fair, my secret pain & endless love.

II.

And in the sultry heat of day,
When she does seek some cool retreat;
Throw spicy odours in her way,
And scatter roses at her feet.

III.

That when she sees their colours fade,
And all their pride neglected lie;
Let that instruct the charming maid,
That sweets not timely gathered die.

IV.

And when she lays her down to rest,
Let some auspicious vision shew,
Who 'tis that loves Camilla best,
And what for her I undergo.

The Whining Lover. SONG A 2 Voc. Mr. Markwell.

BASS Mr. Arnold.

Woman, thoughtless, giddy creature, laughing i-dle, flutt'ring thing;

Most fan-tast-ic work of Nature, still like fan-cy on the wing.

II.

Slaves to ev'ry changing passion,
Loving, hating in extream;
Fond of ev'ry pleasing fashion,
And at best a pleasing dream.

III.

Lovely trifle, dear illusion!
Conqu'ring weakness, wish'd-for pain;
Man's chief glory and confusion,
Of all vanities most vain.

IV.

Thus deriding beauty's power,
We will call it all a cheat;
But in less than half an hour;
Kneel'd and whin'd at Cælia's feet.

The celebrated Early Horn. A 2 Voc. Mr. Galliard.

BASS Mr. Arnold.

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The top staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a time signature of 6/8. The bottom staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The music is written in a simple, folk-like style with eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics 'With ear—ly horn, fa—lute the morn, that gilds this charming place, with chearful cries bid' are written below the staves.

The second system of musical notation continues the melody from the first system. It features two staves in treble and bass clefs with a key signature of one sharp and a 6/8 time signature. The lyrics 'e-cho rife, & join the jo-vial cha—ce, & join the jo-vial' are written below the staves.

The Honest Yorkshire Man. SONG, A. 2 Voc.

BASS Mr. Arnold.

I am in truth, a country youth, unus'd to London fashions, yet virtue guides, and still presides o'er all my steps & passions: No courtly leers, but all sincere, no bribe shall e-ver blind me, if you can like a Yorkshire tike, an honest man you'll find me.

II.

Tho' envy's tongue,
With slander hung,
Does oft bely our county;
No men on earth,
Boast greater birth;
Or more extend their bounty;
'Our northern breeze,
With us agrees,
As does our bus'ness, fit us;
In public cares,
In love's affairs,
With honor we acquit us.

III.

A noble mind,
Is ne'er confin'd,
To any shire or nation;
He gains most praise,
Who best displays,
A gen'rous education;
While rancour rolls,
In narrow souls,
By narrow views discerning;
The truly wise,
Will only prize,
Good manners, sense and learning:

Health sparkles in her eye, health spar-kles in her eye.

Her song is like the linnets lay,

 Yon stately swans, so white and sleek, are like to Sally's breath and neck,
 But still she turn'd her spinning wheel.

 For where sweet modesty appears, we never see the vale of years,
 But still she turn'd her spinning wheel.

 Where honest labour earns her meal:
 Who tells the flatterer's common tale, can never o'er my heart prevail,
 And make me leave my spinning wheel.

V.

The swain who loves the virtuous mind, alone can make young Sally kind,
 For him I'll toil, I'll spin and reel,
 It is the voice says he of love, come hasten to yon church above,

The Free Election. CATCH, A. 3 Voc.Mr. Henry Carey.

Curs'd be the wretch that's bought and sold, and bar-ters li-berli-ber-ty; and he who sells his sin-gle right, would sell his coun-try if he might.

II.

When liberty is put to sale,
 For wine, for money, or for ale,
 The sellers must be abject slaves,
 The buyers, vile designing knaves:
 And 't has a proverb been of old,
 The devil's bought but to be sold.

III.

This maxim, in the statesman's school,
 Is always taught, divide, and rule;
 All parties are to him a joke;
 While zealots foam, he fits the yoke;
 When men their reason once resume.
 It is the statesman's turn to fume.

IV.

Learn, learn, ye Britons, to unite,
 Leave off the old exploded bite;
 Henceforth let Whig and Tory cease,
 And turn all party rage to peace;
 Then shall we see a glorious scene;
 And so God save great George our King.

Hark! the bonny Christ Church bells, one, two, three, four, five, six, they found so woundy great, so wond'rous sweet, and they troul so mer-ri-ly, mer-ri-ly; Hark! the first and se-cond bell, that ev'-ry day at four and ten, cries, come, come, come, come, come to pray'rs, and the vir-ger troops be--fore the dean;

tingle, tingle ting, goes the small bell at nine, to call the bearers home, but the de'el a man will leave his can, 'till he hears the mighty Tom.

CATCH, A. 4 Voc.

Mr. Purcell.

Soldier, foldier, take off thy wine, and shake thy locks, and shake thy locks as I shake mine. How can I my poor locks shake, that have but ten, I have but ten hairs on my pate, and one of them must go for tythes; so there remains, so there remains but four and five, four and five, and that makes nine; then take off thy drink, then take off thy drink, as

I take mine.

PARTING CATCH, A. 3 Voc.

Mr. Henry Purcell.

When V and I to-ge-ther meet, we make up six, in house or freet; yet I and V may meet once more, and then we two can make but four; but when that V from I am gone, a—
